Flametree SRS Wilyabrup cabernet sauvignon 2018

...character plus. It's an elegantly structured and weighted wine that delivers with a style and effortless ease. Perfumed aroma of African violet, wild berry and chocolate. There's a thread of graphite and a little bay leaf lurking within. The palate has a chalky, grainy feel. It's a cracker.

Score: 98/100 Cellar: 15 years

What power and intensity here, harnessed so beautifully... so compelling...the palate has no constraint, extending with an incredible drive and energy over the hills and far away. Royle has reached a new high with this masterpiece.

flowstone

Flowstone Queen of the Earth sauvignon blanc 2019

"...Complex beyond where complex usually sits.

It has loads of secondary character in there with a degree of pristine crunch that drives it to a super long finish.

Chalky acidity is complemented by a slight struck-match edge. And behind all that is the fruit. It's a ripper."

Peccavi

"...a stunning example of merlot. Soft and seductive with exotic aromas of fruit cake and wild berry. The palate, while soft and supple, has a steeling core that gives structure and definition. A serious statement of merlot..."

ROCKCLIFFE

Rockcliffe Nautica shiraz 2018

"...this is a real game changer for these guys. An exceptional wine displaying all that is good from the Great Southern. The bouquet shows a dark cherry, plummy, licorice character. And if that don't get you in, then the sublime palate will. It's a luxurious mix of dark fruit swirling with a dry earthiness and picked up to carry forward with the tight, chalky tannins. Oh yah.
